

Stem Cell Technology

DSC investor conference
Wednesday 19th October 2011

Angel Biotechnology (ABH.L)

Angel Biotechnology provides specialised contract manufacturing services to biotechnology and pharmaceutical companies worldwide. The company has specific expertise in the manufacturing of cell-based therapies, recombinant proteins, and bacteriophages.

Dr. Paul Harper (Chairman) and Andrew Carver (Business Development Director)

Cryo-Save (CRYO.AEX)

Cryo-Save is the leading international family stem cell bank collecting, processing and storing umbilical cord and stem cells from umbilical cord blood and fat tissue, present in over 40 countries on 4 continents.

Arnoud van Tulder (CEO) and Cherie Daly (Medical Affairs Director)

Epistem (EHP.L)

Leveraging its epithelial stem cell research platform, Epistem provides contract research services to drug development companies. The company also develops proprietary therapeutics and diagnostic biomarkers.

Matthew Walls (CEO)

ReNeuron (RENE.L)

ReNeuron specialises in the development and commercial exploitation of stem cell technologies for therapeutic applications.

Michael Hunt (CEO)

Registration and coffee from 08:30 for 09:00 start, lunch will be provided.
The day will conclude at 14.00

5th Floor, 60 Cannon Street, London, EC4N 6NP